

Ch_4_Meaning

What is “Meaning” and why is it so important to Sociology?

Micro: Weber's basic sociological terms

Macro: Durkheim's views about norms?

The essence of social construction is knowing the "aboutness" of a phenomenon

Meaning as unifying

Meaning as a source of conflict and a vector for power

Cultural Universals

Marriage

Property Rights

Religious Ritual

Language

A brief history of civilization with a specific focus on culture

Dynamics today